LAW ENFORCEMENT BODIES OF THE UKRAINIAN STATE*(April–December 1918):*CHRONICLE OF MAIN EVENTS

Research article is an excerpt from section 2 “Police (militia) of Ukraine during the liberation struggle (1917–1920)” of the textbook “Formation and Development of Police (militia) in Ukraine (XVIII century–2020): Chronicle of the Main Events”, which has been prepared by the authors’ collective of the Department of Scientific Informational and Editorial Publishing Activities of the State Research Institute of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Ukraine, according to the planned research work. The paper covers the chronicle of the main events in the formation of law enforcement agencies during the Ukrainian state of Hetman P. Skoropadsky (April – December 1918).

The structure of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Ukrainian State was as follows. The ministry was headed by the Minister of Internal Affairs of the Ukrainian State. The next management consisted of comrades (deputies) of the Minister and members of the Council of Ministers. The Ministry of Internal Affairs included the departments of general affairs, the State Guard, technical and economic, local self-government, insurance, refugee, and rural affairs, as well as the Main Directorate for Conscription, the Department and the Press Committee, and the Chancellery.

The Ministers of the Interior were: F.A. Lyzogub (May 3 – July 25), I.O. Kistyakivsky (July 26 – October 24, November 17 – December 14), V.Ye. Rainbot (October 24 – November 14).

The state apparatus was urgently formed, including structural subdivisions of the Ministry of Internal Affairs. The structure of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Ukrainian State was as follows. The ministry was headed by the Minister of Internal Affairs of the Ukrainian State. The next management consisted of comrades (deputies) of the Minister and members of the Council of Ministers. The Ministry of Internal Affairs included the departments of general affairs, the State Guard, technical and economic, local self-government, insurance, refugee, and rural affairs, as well as the Main Directorate for Conscription, the Department and the Press Committee, and the Chancellery.

P.A. Ackerman, a former prosecutor of the Vilnius District Court, has been appointed the director of the State Guard Department. He held the newly appointed position from May to December 1918.
